

DIAGNOSTIC DEMONSTRATION DEVICE

5

ABSTRACT OF THE DISCLOSURE

Diagnostic demonstration devices and methods are disclosed that, in various embodiments, may include a simulated test strip and a mechanism capable of extending 10 the simulated test strip out of the housing and retracting the simulated test strip into the housing. In other embodiments, a simulated test strip supply and a mechanism operably attached to the simulated test strip supply are provided with the mechanism capable of dispensing a simulated test strip from the simulated test strip supply. The diagnostic demonstration devices may not include functional diagnostic hardware designed to 15 analyze a biological tissue or fluid sample obtained from a patient.
